Dear Dennis, 12/26.95

Now wanting to waste all the time to read Livinsgtone's newest I got a xerox of this chapter on the alleged faking of the Zapruder film. I annotated it while I read it and about last Thursday began writing the enclosed. I'd thought I'd do it in a single chapter but had to divide it into two.

I supoose it should be the last chaptersin what should be the part on him and his insanities.

I'm almost half-way through Walt Brown's Treachery inDallas and I'll add to what I've written on it probably after I finish the reading and annotating of the books itself.

It is pretty awful but I suspect it will appeal to many.

Hope you had a good holiday,

Harold
